APPEALS FOR M'KINLEY. An Official Address Calling on Those Who Oped Bryan in 1896 to Encompass His posed Bryan in 1890 to Latement of What Defeat This Year—Caim Statement of What His Election Would Mean—The Benefits the Gold Standard Has Bestowed Since 1896 Trust Question Will Solve Itself.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 5 .- The Executive Committee of the National (Gold Standard) Democracy to-night issued an appeal to the voters of the country urging them to defeat William Jennings Bryan and thus save the country from the perils that would follow his election. The

"AN ADDRESS TO THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATS-THAT IS, THE GOLD DEMOCRATS OF THE UNITED STATES: Four years ago your patriotic position saved the country from the perils of Mr. Bryan's election. You were not deceived by the plea of regularity in his nomination; you saw him truly as the nominee of a combination which had taken your party name to cover principles unknown to Democracy. You stood steadfastly by the financial views and political philosophy of Jefferson, Jackson, Tilden and Cleveland. In your national convention at Indianapolis you declared that you 'assembled to uphold the principles upon which idepend the honor and welfare of the American people in order that Democrats throughout the Union may unite their patriotic efforts to avert disaster from their country and ruin from their

"That convention said that the Democratio party had survived many defeats, but could not survive victory won in behalf of the doctrine and policy proclaimed in its name at Chicago, You went firmly to your duty and did it well, in the hope that there would be no further attempt to use your party as a mask to the abhorent principles advocated by Mr. Bryan. In his defeat misled supporters were admonished and chastened to an extent which turned them away from the path to which he had allured them.

But through the power of his organsation, and by reason of the hope of success, born in his prior nomination by the Populists, Mr. Bryan prevailed against the better sense of the convention, compelled indorsement of the false doctrines of 1896, and by the votes of Alaska and Hawaii, forced the specific restatement of his dangerous and destructive financial theory. He stands now, therefore, added thereto his declaration in favor of an unlimited issue of greenback tions to destroy the gold standard, to effect the free coinage of silver at the artificial ratio of 16 to 1, to the expulsion of both gold and silver from the country by a resumption of the issue of greenbacks, to destruction of judithe judicial tenure, to a system direct legislation which transfers lawmaking to the ballot box and destroys our representa-

What will follow is already visible in his appeals to class hatred, envy and prejucratic party has promoted the purposes which then justified its existence. We have urged and accomplished legislation to strengthen the gold standard. In that standard the interest on the public debt has been reduced to 2 per cent. and the national credit has been so strengthened that our 2 per cent. bonds are at a premium.

"The gold standard has transformed us from a debtor to a creditor nation and has made the United States the clearing house of the commerold world. It has increased the consuming power of the people by industrial restoration and has added value to the farm crops of the country and to the land which produces them.

"The further effect of the gold standard is the steady employment of American labor and payment of wages in the best money in the world. The destruction of that standard, the degradation of the public credit, the paralysis of industry the restriction of commerce, increased cost of production and descent to a paper basis are the disasters threatened by the election of Mr. Bryan, and he is pledged to inflict them all as soon as he gets the power. He seeks that power by an appeal to the anti-expansion and anti-trust sentiment of the people

"The difficulties of our external policy were as unforeseen as their solution is as present unrevealed

"The evil of trusts has no party parentage, and will be remedied by the combined intelli-gence of all parties. Without minimizing the perils of either we affirm that no greater evil can befall our Government than the impairment of its vigor, the destruction of its credit and the ruin of our industries which Mr. Bryan is specifically pledged to effect if he gets the power.

"Therefore we appeal to our countrymen again to avert disaster from their country by his defeat "The Executive Committee,

CHICAGO, Oct. 5 .- James H. A large audience greeted him. He devoted a large part of his address toward showing that banks were not injurious to the interests of the workingmen. He denounced Bryanism as antagonizing aggregated wealth. He said banks did not impoverish the workingman and that they suffered when the workingman did. Mr. Eckels added: "I would impress upon the laboring man

OUTLOOK BRIGHT IN KINGS. Canvass Indicates That McKinley Will Again

After Chairman Walter B. Atterbury of the Republican Campaign Committee in Brooklyn had examined the reports of the election district captains, who have been making a careful canvass of the voters, he announced yesterday that the indications pointed to a plurality for McKinley almost as big as that of four years age, when he swept the county by over 32,000. This is Mr. Atterbury's statement:

"This prediction is not based upon guesswork upon my own part, but upon the reports which a partial convass of the various districts in the city seems to indicate. From these reports there is every reason to believe that there will be little change in this county from the vote of McKinley in 1896. The difference made by the breaking up of the independent gold party will probably be more than made up by the Democrats who will vote straight for McKinley instead of throwing their vote away upon a third man. While we had looked for victory in the county this year, there were reasons any politician could explain from a purely natural standpoint why the vote was not expected to be perhaps as large as in 1896. I do not even now say that it will be, but I do say that we will carry the county undoubtedly at very near the same vote, and that if these figures are carried out in all the districts the vote will be as great, if not greater, for McKinley than in 1896.

"From all the information I have on hand I feel absolutely confident that the German-American element will cast more votes for the Republican party this year than ever. I have talked with former Mayor Charles A. Schieren, a man as well acquainted with the sentiment of the German-Americans as any citizen in in the city seems to indicate. From these realked with former Mayor Charles A. Schieren, i man as well acquainted with the sentiment of the German-Americans as any citizen in the country. He never tries to mislead any one for political effect and he assures me the German-Americans will vote solidly for McKin-ey and a sound currency."

HANNA APTER PETTIGREW'S SCALP. BRYAN IN THE GAS BELT:

TALKS TO INDIANA WORKMEN ON TRUSTS AND THEIR WORK.

Great Crowds Greet Him-Only One Reference to Free Silver During the Day-Says Re-publicans Have Forced the Issues of 1896 to the Rear-Declares That Employers Are Coercing Workingmen in Their Voting. INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 5.- The special train of four coaches having on board William Jennings Bryan and his Indiana escort started on the much-talked-of tour of the gas belt from the Indianapolis Union Station at 7:07 o'clock this morning. Bryan's special car, "Rambler," on which he spent the remainder of the night after returning from Lebanon, was closed and the doors locked. The window where the Democratic chieftain slept was open and he could be seen easily as he lay on his couch, evidently sleeping, but no one had the temerity to awaken him and he was still asleep when the train rumbled out on its journey.

Chairman Martin of the Democratic State Committee, National Committeeman Taggart and a number of others were on the train with Mr. Bryan, and at each town where he spoke speakers were left to address:the crowds. The train was scheduled to stop at Noblesville, Tipton, Elwood, Alexandria, Marion, Hartford City, Muncie, Richmond, Winchester, New (astle and Anderson, all gas belt towns and factory centres, and at each the candidate spoke for twenty or thirty minutes, with the exception of Anderson, where a night meeting

At each of the stops the work of the party managers was evident, as none of the crowds fell below 8,000 people and some of them reached 12,000 or more. Mr Bryan spoke almost ex-

12,000 or more. Mr Bryan spoke almost exclusively on the trust question and referred to tree silver as an issue only once. At Elwood he said on this subject:

"We would have been willing to discuss the questions of 1896, and those only, but for the fact that the Republican party forced into the arena new questions. If the Republican party had dealt fairly with the people, it might have fought the battle of 1900 on the old issues, but the Republican party is itself responsible for bringing in questions which overshadowed the questions of 1890. It cannot divert public attention to mere financial matters white our republic itself is being endangered by the application of doctrires fit only for monarchies and empires."

He then referred to the visit of President McKinley to the place when the tin plate works were opened and said:

"Whenever an institution is opened the Republicans make a great day of it and invite distinguished people from abroad to be present at the opening, but when a trust closes a factory they do not invite a President or anybody else to preside at the closing I was in Superior, Wis, the other day, and I found that the flour mill they do not invite a President or anybody else to preside at the closing. I was in Superior, Wis, the other day, and I found that the flour mili trust had closed six flour milis in that city. I was in Mankato Minn, and I found that the biscuit company had closed the cracker factory in Mankato. I find that the tin plate trust has closed tin plate milis all over the country. I find that these trusts, organized to monopolize the trade and control the market, and fix the price on raw material, finished product and the price of labor, are to-day destroying industrial independence and condemning our children to perpetual clerkships under monopoly.

children to perpetual clerk ships under monopoly."

A direct appeal was made to the workingmen when Col. Bryan referred to the closing down of a part of the works of the Barb Wire and Wire Nail trusts. He declared:

"It means intimidation of the workingmen. It means that the manufacturer, when he has a monopoly, will attempt to coerce his employees. I see before me those who are laboring men. I want to ask you, laboring men, was the hallet given to you by your employer? If the employer has the right to vote his men, then why doesn't the Republican party pass a law that gives the employer as many votes as he has employees why not make it say that the employer shall have a right to all the votes of the men who labor for him?

"No Republican would dare to propose such a law, but ver, in 1806, employers intimidated their men, robbed them of their right to vote, and there are indications that the same thing is going to be attempted now. It could not be done except under a system of monopoly, because if we had competition and industrial independence, if an employer attempted to rob his employees of the right to vote, they would quit working for him, and go to work for somebody else, but when they have a nonopoly they cannot go anywhere else and they would lose the skill of a lifetime, and therefore are at the mercy of the employers."

At Alexandria, Tipton, flartford City and uld lose the skill of a lifetime, and there-e are at the mercy of the endloyers." At Alexandria, Tipton, flartford City and note the same sentiments were expressed, t different phraseology was used. In only a r instances did Mr. Bryan depart from the gramme which was arranged with a view placing the question of trusts before factory players.

TAKES OFF HIS HAT TO M'KINLEY Gen. Jackson of Baltimore Addresses Wholesale Dry Goods Club - Dr. Stryker Also Speaks. The Rev. Dr. M. W. Stryker, President of Hamilton College, and Gen. Lloyd L. Jackson of Baltimore spoke yesterday before the Wholesale Dry Goods Club at Leonard street and Broadway In the course of his speech Gen.

"I supported Mr Bryan in 1896. It is almost true that I furnished all the money used by Maryland Democrats to aid in his election. I organized Bryan meetings in Baltimore on the same plan that the New York men are holding daily meetings for McKinley. I merely mention this to indicate that I was the stanchest of Democrats. Yet, on election night when I learned that McKinley had been elected, I said I would take off my hat to him if he did what he had promised to do. He has done it and I have taken off my hat to him. I shall work for him and vote for him. I cannot see why the business men of the country should regard this question as a political question. It is a business question, more so than any of the technical questions of business which arise daily. My business interests require that I should support business interests require that I should support the present Administration and my interests are no different, as concerns this question, from the interests of all the other business men of the South. McKinley will carry Maryland by not less than 10,000."

Dr. Stryker in his speech said:

"If Bryan should be elected it would be the triumph of a man who, if his judgment was equal to his imagination, would be a greater post than Shakespeare, and if his logic were equal to his ability to talk, would be a greater philosopher than Plato But, unfortunately for his fellow men. Mr. Bryan's character is one-sided and half-sided in every respect, and his accomplishments are, therefore, only danger-oue.

The Republican party stands for honest money, for the dignify of the Supreme Court, for the performance of our national obligations; we stand in sight of that flag which Anderson took out to Fort Sumter, which Farragut took into Mobile Bay, which Dewey took into Manila; we do not say it shall never come down, but we do say it shall never come down until it has floated in the sunlight of freedom. CHICAGO, Oct. 5.- The New York Journal on Sept. 23 printed a cable despatch from Paris saying that Archbishop Ireland, who was on his way home from Rome, where he had had a long interview with the Pope, would not support McKinley this year. The Chicago American, the Chicago branch of the New York Journal, printed the same despatch. Archbishop Ireland's alleged utterances have been circulated in every State and Territory and Bryan's friends have taken much comfort from them. The Hon. Richard C. Kerens, Republican National Committeeman for Missouri, an old and intimate friend of Archbishop Ireland, put himself in cable communication with the Archbishop. The Archbishop cabled that he would sail on the Majestic on Oct. 10, and would stop a few days at the Fifth Avenue Hotel in New York. The Archbishop also cabled to Mr. Kerens that Archbishop Reane of the Dubuque diocese, who had been with him in Europe, was to return to the United States immediately and was to confer with Cardinal Gibbons. Archbishop Keane, after his conference with Cardinal Gibbons, had a long talk with Mr. Kerens in this city a few days ago, and among other things the Archbishop said:

"Archbishop Ireland in his interview wit the Holy Father was instructed to say to friends in America for the Holy Father: 'I' delighted with the condition of affairs in For Rico, Cuba and the Philippine Islands we respect to the Catholic Church. It is the bles ing of blessings that the great Republic America has assumed the sovereignty of the islands, and I believe the great nation is to instrument of God to rule over these island and preserve whatever civilization there is the 460 years.' the Holy Father was instructed to say to islands, and I believe the great nation is the instrument of God to rule over these islands and preserve whatever civilization there is of the 40 years.

Mr. Kerens has had further cable communication with Archbishop Ireland, and furthermore he has been in constant communication with Cardinal Gibbons, who is also claimed by the Bryanites, and to-night Mr. Kerens was authorized to make the following statement:

I cannot understand why the Democratic press should persist in misrepresenting the position of so many prominent people concerning the context in this campaign. Prominent prelates of the Catholic Church seem to be the especial object of these misrepresentations. Only the other day it was announced with a great flourish and in glowing headlines throughout the Democratic press of the country that Archbishop Ireland had declared himself as dissatisfied and renounced President McKinley and would support Mr. Bryan for the Presidency. Naturally the American people were surprised at this announcement, for Archbishop Ireland has always been a consistent opponent of Bryanism as hurtful to American institutions. It caused no surprise, therefore, when the Archbishop, on learning that his position had been misrepresented, gave out an interview in London in which he took strong and uncompromising ground in support of the Republican ticket and expressed the wish that President McKinley should be reflected. Vesterday the same Democratic press published with sensational headlines a statement to the effect that his Eminence, Cardinal Gibbons, had declared himself in favor of the election of Mr. Bryan for President. Of course Cardinal Gibbons cannot be expected to rush into print and deny the irresponsible statements that may be published in partisan newspapers. That would be beneath the dignity of his high office and repugnant to the Cardinal's quiet demeanor. I am absolutely confident the Republican party is not engaged in misrepresenting the position of any man in this campaign, and it is incomprehensible to me that the

We appeal in this election to the business men of Georgia. Politics that do not express the requirements of a people's business are antagonistic to their prosperity. The vote cast by a business man against his own convictions and the policies under which he prosper is a self-inflicted stab, and we say to those of our friends who hesitate between business and sentiment, and who have listened to the eloquence of local spellbinders for twenty-five years, that the only prosperity Georgia Democrats have enjoyed during that time was derived from Republican administration of government."

THE HILL MEN WIN OUT. They Nominate Their Candidate in the Fortyfourth Senate District.

ROCHESTER, Oct. 5 .- The Democrats of the Forty-fourth Senate district held a disorderly convention in the Common Council chamber at noon to-day. It was not known up to yesterday that there would be any ambition on the part of any Democrat to be slaughtered at the coming election, but last night the order came that David B. Hill wanted one of his friends nominated. The Hill men immediately started out to drum up a candidate, and hit upon Frederick Smith, a lawyer of some local reputation. Frank P. Crouch, a Croker man, who was a

Frank P. Crouch, a Croker man, who was a candidate for Sheriff last year, wanted the nomination, and when the delegates got into the convention to-day they were ready for a goodfight.

John D. Lynn, who distinguished himself at the Saratoga convention as one of Mr. Crokers' right hand men and whose picture was printed along with Croker, Murphy and McCarren in the New York papers, thereby winning him great renown among his party men at home, wanted to be a substitute for a delegate in the convention to-day, so that he could look after the interests of Croker there. Three different times he declared that he had been substituted for different delegates, and three different times the delegates popped up and denied that he had been substituted. He finally got a seat with the Third ward delegation. While the voting was going on both sides made charges of crooked work. Smith finally won out and the Hill men held a Jubilation.

Stauchfield and Coler in Utica.

UTICA, Oct. 5. - John B. Stanchfield and Bird . Color opened the Democratic campaign in Oneida county to-night with a rally which attracted about two thousand five hundred persons. The principal theme of Mr. Stanchfield's speech was imperialism. He drew a distinction between imperialism and expansion, using the same arguments that have characterized his recent addresses. He scored Gov. Roosevelt, charging him with parading his military record for collical purposes. Mr Coler's remarks were very brief. He referred to the Ramapo scandal and the part he playe! in it and paid an indirect tribute to David B. Hill.

Keep the Flag Flying. At a meeting of the Central Dry Goods Divison of the sound money parade of 1900 held on Wednesday the following resolution was unanimously adopted: "All patriotic merchants, manufacturers and private citizens in Greater New York are requested to display their colors in behalf of sound money in this campaign by hoisting their house flags or the national emblem from their respective places of business or residences, or both, continuously from Oct. 4 to Nov. 6, inclusive."

Lull in Election Betting.

Election betting odds in Wall Street yesterday ruled at 3 to 1 on McKinley. At least one bet of $1,500 to $500 was made. It was reported that several bets had been made uptown during the morning at odds of 3½ to 1. In the curb crowd M. Neumorgen made a bet of $200 to $70 on McKinley with J. J. Judge.

3 years ago we commenced copying the styles and shapes of the most expensive shoes of the most notable shoe makers; we gave $14 style and as good leather and workmanship as $5 could possibly give. Result: our shoe sales jumped.

Now we've taken another step in advance. The men who made our models are making our shoes.

No shoe store in New York City, no matter how exclusive, can give anything better in shoes -of course we have to charge more than $5.

DAVIES REPLIES TO STANCHFIELD.

He Says if He Cannot Destroy the Ice Trust It Will Be the Fault of the Tammany IAW. ALBANY, Oct. 6. - Attorney-General Davies is astonished that John B. Stanchfield, the Democratic candidate for Governor, should comment as he did last night in his Syracuse speech on the pending legal prosecution of the Tammany Ice Trust. He said: "My prosecution of the Ice Trust is based on the Anti-trust law, passed by the State Legisla-ture of 1899. This law was framed by Senator Thomas F. Donnelly, a member of Tammany Hail. It was based upon another Anti-trust law, passed two years before, under which the prosecution of the Coal Trust mentioned by Mr. Stanchfield was instituted.

"Senator Donnelly introduced amendments to that law, which were incorporated in his new Anti-trust law passed last year which he declared would make it a "cure all" for all trust diseases in this State. Shortly after the Legislature adjourned last year Senator Donnelly complained because I did not utilize his law and crush all of the trusts in the State. I am now employing every legal implement afforded by the Donnelly liw to destroy the Ice Trust and, as the public is aware, I have been met at every turn in the courts by the lawyers representing the Ice Trust with motions tending to delay action. The courts only can destroy the Ice Trust, and I am using all of the legal machinery in my power to help toward that end. If the Donnelly Anti-trust law is not weak I believe I shall succeed in destroying the Ice Trust." Thomas F. Donnelly, a member of Tammany
